DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's amendment filed 1/9/02 in Paper No. 2 is acknowledged and entered. Claims 1-28 are canceled by the amendment.
2. Claims 29-37 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

3. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 29-35, drawn to a method of fabricating a biopolymer array from pre-synthesized biopolymer, classified in class 435, subclass 7.1.
  - II. Claim 36, drawn to a method of shielding biosynthesis reactions and sensitive biosynthesis reactants, classified in class 436, subclass 55.
  - III. Claim 37, drawn to a shield, classified in class 436, subclass 146.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

4. Inventions of Group I and Group II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions (methods) require different reagents that have different functions and different effects and would produced different products/results.

The method step of depositing the biopolymer solution on the array surface and linking the biopolymer to the surface of Group I is not required by the claims of Group II. The method step of depositing the sensitive biosynthesis reactants through the non-miscible fluid is not required by the claims of Group I.

5. Inventions of Group III (product) and Group I (process) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product such as the process of coating a metal substrate.

6. Inventions of Group III (product) and Group II (process) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product such as the process of coating a metal substrate.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the searches required are not co-extensive thus requiring a burdensome search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Additionally, different patentability considerations are involved for each group. For example, a patentability determination for Group III would involve a determination of the patentability of a shield while a patentability determination for Group I would involve a consideration of the patentability of a method of fabricating a biopolymer array from pre-synthesized biopolymer. These considerations are very different in nature.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
